SkySparc growth recognized with industry award for the fourth time

Stockholm, 30 October, 2018 – SkySparc, an independent solutions provider, has been recognized as one of Sweden’s fastest growing companies by Dagens Industri, the leading financial newspaper.

This is the fourth time SkySparc has received the Gazelle award, having qualified in 2010, 2011 and 2012. Roughly 0.2% of Sweden’s half million limited liability companies were eligible in 2018.

SkySparc CEO Joakim Wiener said: “We’re delighted to have received a Gazelle award for the fourth time, which is a fitting recognition of the contribution made by every member of our team. I’d like to thank our staff and clients for their continued support in recent years.”
